

KIMBERLY NELSON

KIMBERLY@SPIROCOACHING.COM

Kimberly Nelson is the Managing Partner for Spiro Coaching Institute.

Kimberly holds master's degrees in theology, divinity, and intercultural studies, along with a bachelor's degree in business. She worked in higher education for fifteen years, serving in senior administration, teaching religious studies, coordinating international programs, and mentoring instructors.

Throughout her career, Kimberly has worked with boards and senior leaders in education and community organizations to help craft strategy, speeches, and academic curricula.

Kimberly and her husband David live on the campus of Catawba College in Salisbury, North Carolina.

