

TREY GERMANO

TREY@SPIROCOACHING.COM

Trey Germano serves as the Director of Innovation and Programs.

Trey is a native of Salisbury, North Carolina and holds a master's degree in business administration from Catawba College.

Trey works closely with the Partners of Spiro Coaching Institute to support client relationships. As Director of Innovation and Programs, Trey leverages his skills and energy to support special projects and interests, coordinating and producing Spiro's coaching programs, and helping innovate the Spirosphere.

In his free time, Trey enjoys traveling to new parts of the world. He also loves to connect, so feel free to reach out to him for any support you may need in your work with Spiro.

