

CHUCK AINSWORTH

Chuck Ainsworth is a leader in the field of leadership development and executive coaching, personally requested when the stakes are high. His clients range from the Fortune 500 to small non-profits, healthcare, and higher education.

Leadership isn't theory to Chuck. He has a proven ability to establish trust and get results. A dynamic communicator and facilitator, he has a refreshingly authentic, practical, and inspiring style that reflects his deep understanding of what it takes to build and lead high performing teams and create sustainable culture change. Chuck is a Forbes Coaches Council member and recently wrote the chapter on Coaching and Mentoring for the second edition of Management and Leadership Skills for Medical Faculty and Healthcare Executives (Springer, 2020).

Chuck previously served as Head of Coaching and Senior Faculty at the Center for Creative Leadership (CCL), ranked in the top 10 globally for executive education. His team led 400 executive coaches, provided 20,000 coaching sessions annually, trained thousands of leaders in coaching conversation skills and doubled revenue in less than 5 years.

Prior to CCL, Chuck was an Organizational Development practitioner for Cone Health, a nationally ranked healthcare system, where he designed and facilitated leadership development programs and coached physician leaders and healthcare administrators, leading to measurably improved employee engagement and patient satisfaction.

He also served five years, in progressively senior positions, with a $500M international disaster relief organization, where he led large-scale international disaster relief efforts, was Head of Learning and Development, and provided coaching for relief and development workers from all over the world. He has also taught at the Royal University of Phnom Penh in Cambodia.

Chuck has an MA in Organizational Leadership from Azusa Pacific University and has been certified as a coach with the International Coach Federation (ICF) since 2007. He holds certifications in team coaching, performance consulting, and human performance improvement, and is qualified to deliver a wide range of psychometric instruments including MBTI, FIRO-B®, Hogan, Workplace Big Five, and the full suite of CCL assessments and 360s.
